LOCAL SCHOOL BOARD

CARL M. FELTS
Principal

Greetings from our beloved principal:

"Seniors of 1953, during the past twelve years your interests have been my interests. I have been interested in your efforts. I know you have ambition and enthusiasm, but my message to you is to strive to always have a strength of purpose and character enough to push on to the successful completion of your goal in life. It will be a supreme delight to you in seeing "a job well done."

"Strive to keep the spirit of helpfulness and earnest endeavor that characterizes our school; dare to dream of the future and strike boldly to make those dreams come true. Keep your principles high and clean, for as in all life 'principle is the principal thing'."

"Wonderful opportunities are yours. While my generation has seen great changes, your generation will see miraculous changes in mankind. Explore these new frontiers boldly and courageously; for this is your opportunity, your hope, and your joy."

"KING'S CABIN"

In keeping with the original name of our town, we have chosen KING'S CABIN as the title of our 1953 yearbook.

We are especially indebted to Mr. Theodore Newsome for the historical facts and the background herewith presented.

Many veterans from the Revolutionary War passed through Stokes County and many settled here. Among those who settled here was a man by the name of Charles King. He built a little log cabin near where the home of A. S. Francis now stands. It was for this man that the little town was called King.

With the coming of a railroad through King in 1887, the town began to grow. Mark Chopplin opened the first store in King. It stood just north of the railroad crossing near Mr. Francis's home. The first post office was located in Chopplin's store. This store was the center of town for many years.

Soon after a railway station was built by the Grabs Brothers and the people of the community. The post office was moved near the station. About this time we got our first doctor. Dr. Jacob Knight came to King from Colfax. He lived in a small log house which stood just across the road from the O. L. Rains home.

Before we got a doctor the town had a school, which was a one-room log cabin and stood near the home of Mrs. P. W. Gunter. Wince Fulton was the first teacher. In 1904 the school district known as Hardluck and Hustler was consolidated into the King School district, and a new frame building was erected. In 1909 this two-room building was jacked up and two rooms were put underneath the old rooms. This was the year King High School was established with Professor Coggins as principal. F. T. Smith was the county superintendent. This was the first public high school in Stokes County.

About 1911 a new frame building was erected where the present baseball diamond is located. There was no auditorium, so for commencement programs, the teachers marched the children down to the Old Tabernacle, a large circular building which was used for all public meetings at that time. Several years later an auditorium and more rooms were added to the building.

The following were at the head of the school during these periods: 1911-12, Bivens; 1913-15, Hiatt; 1915-17, A. R. Phillips; 1917-18, Britt; 1918-22, I. T. Smith; 1922-24, H. A. Carroll; 1924-25, G. C. Bush; 1925-27, H. A. Carroll; 1927-32, C. C. Carroll; 1932-to present, C. M. Felts.

In 1928 the present modern brick school building was erected. Later came a new gymnasium, agriculture building, home economics building and a lunch room.

In September 1952 we, the four high school grades, entered our new modern brick building. We feel it is to the advantage of both grades and high school to have separate buildings; and the class of '53, deem it a privilege to be the first graduates from the new building.

DEDICATION

RUMELL SISK STEVENS

For her patience, efficiency, helpful guidance, and her co-operation in every phase of our school life, we the Senior Class of 1953 humbly dedicate this, our yearbook, to our librarian and teacher, MRS. CLIFTON STEVENS.

CLASS HISTORY

Fifty-eight boys and girls enjoyed the summer of 1949 and looked forward to the opening of school in the fall. This opening marked their entrance into high school and another step in their growing up.

The day came and everyone gathered in the auditorium for the usual routine of opening day. The Freshmen, feeling very important, awaited their turn to learn who their teachers were. Many were disappointed to find the girls would have their home room in the economics building with Mrs. Patterson and the boys would be with Mr. Fowler in the science room.

When they were settled down they elected class officers and grade parents. Officers in Mrs. Patterson's room were "Diddy" Caudle, President; Mary Ruth Johnson, Vice-President; Barbara Southern, Secretary, and Grace Westmoreland, Treasurer.

After the gay days of the Freshmen year they again enjoyed the summer months and returned in the fall of 1950 for their second year of high school.

There were fifty-two students this year and the home room teachers were Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Duncan. Officers elected in Mrs. Patterson's room were Mary Smith, President; Mary Ruth Johnson, Vice-President; Diddy Caudle, Secretary and Treasurer; and June Sisk, Reporter. In Mrs. Duncan's room they were Charles Westmoreland, President; Naomi Wall, Vice-President; Doris Barr, Secretary; Marvin Gentry, Treasurer; and Wilma Covington, Reporter.

The two Sophomore classes were represented in the Student Council by Doris Edwards, Jack Booze, Barbara Southern, and Hight Ferguson.

Mr. O. W. Sisk and Mrs. W. E. Westmoreland were grade-parents for Mrs. Patterson's class. This class enjoyed a nice trip to Raleigh, visiting the capitol, governor's mansion, and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Worth Gentry were elected grade-parents in Mrs. Duncan's class. They gave the group a very merry party at Christmas time.

Doris Barr, recording secretary in the Student Council meetings and June Sisk, treasurer, enjoyed a trip to Hendersonville for a Northwestern Student Council Conference during their Sophomore year.

May Day was a gay occasion for the high school. The Sophomores were represented in the May Court by Doris Barr and Mary Smith, and other Sophomore girls participated in the program and Maypole dance.

Forty-two of these boys and girls passed from the Sophomore year into their Junior year. The boys and girls will always carry many fond memories of those Junior Days.

Mrs. Stevens was the Junior home room teacher and the Junior's home room was the library. Officers of this year were Mary Smith, President; Charles Westmoreland, Vice-President; Barbara Southern, Recording Secretary; Diddy Caudle, Corresponding Secretary; Marvin Gentry, Treasurer; June Sisk, Reporter. Grade-parents elected were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Sisk and Mr. and Mrs. Worth Gentry. They gave the Juniors a happy New Year's Eve party and presented the Junior Class with two nice pictures, which now hang in the library of the new high school building.

Barbara Southern and "Diddy" Caudle won first place for their fine playing in the talent show held in November. Mary Smith and Mildred Nance won first place for their singing. Several of the Junior girls prepared boxes to be sold for the benefit of the Student Council.

The Juniors worked zealously in preparing the gymnasium for the annual Halloween Carnival. Mary Ruth Johnson, a Junior class member, was crowned harvest queen. Everyone enjoyed the carnival and the Juniors were quite proud of their work.

Both the Juniors and Seniors looked forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel on May 9, 1952. Everyone appeared looking their best and thoroughly enjoyed the fine food and entertainment provided.

At class night, during commencement, the Juniors carried a chain made of field daisies. On the night of the baccalaureate sermon many Juniors sang with the Glee Club. Marshals for commencement were Barbara Southern, chief; Geraldine Lankford, Doris Barr, "Diddy" Caudle, and Naomi Wall.

The new high school building was completed and the boys and girls who had begun their high school days in 1949 now entered the new building to complete their high school days. Mrs. J. Colvin Brown is our home room teacher, 1953 and '54.

The following Senior officers were elected: Mary Smith, President; Doris Barr, Vice-President; Barbara Southern, Recording Secretary; "Diddy" Caudle, Corresponding Secretary; Jack Booze, Treasurer; and Doris Edwards, Reporter. Marvin Gentry and Doris Barr represents the Senior Class at the Student Council meetings.

The Senior Class went to Raleigh to see Sonja Henie's Ice Revue. They were thrilled with the show and had a very joyous trip.

What can be more exciting than the Senior Play? The Seniors of 1952-53 presented He Couldn't Take It, a three act comedy, on December 4, 1952. It was a great success. Mrs. Brown was director.

The Seniors were given two nice parties at Halloween and Christmas by their grade-parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McGee and Mr. and Mrs. Debs Holder.

On February 11, 1953 the Senior Class enjoyed a trip to Elon College. Mr. Lindler went with the Seniors on this trip. They enjoyed the basketball game between Elon and High Point.

The Senior girls studying dictation and transcription organized a business girls society known as the Puellae Negoti Socii. Officers elected were Barbara Southern, President; Naomi Wall, Vice-President; June Sisk, Recording Secretary; Margaret Booze, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Newsom was their advisor. These girls had a nice banquet on February 12, at which each member invited a graduate to tell of her work as a secretary.

As class historians, may we wish each of our Senior classmates a very prosperous future—and to Mr. Felts and all of our teachers through the years, may your memories of this class be pleasant as we make our mark in this wonderful land of America.

CLASS PROPHECY

BY MARGARET LEE BOOZE

It is December 19, 1959, on the planet Mars. I am secretary for the Vice-President of the M. G. M. Studios. We are getting ready to blast off for the planet Earth. We are going to visit some of my old classmates while on Earth and we shall land in New York City and shall visit the Metropolitan Opera House while there. When we return to Mars, we shall make a movie about the planet Earth.

As we entered the station platform from our rocketship, we were greeted by Mary Smith and her husband. We learned they were on their way to visit their parents in King, North Carolina. Mary is now teaching American History at the University of Maine.

We learned from Mary that Jessie Merritt is now a successful hair designer in Boston, Massachusetts. We learned that Jessie is not married as yet, but she is planning to wed a Vice-President of the United States Steel Company in April.

As we entered our car on the train, whom should we meet but Charles Westmoreland. He told us he is now pitching for the New York Yankees. He won 19 games last season and only lost one game. We also learned he is married to a famous concert singer.

As we came into Pittsburgh, I saw someone I knew, but I could not recall who she was. After we left the train, I remembered—Edna Newsum. I contacted her and learned she is a basketball coach for a high school in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She is planning to marry Bobby Gravitt when he gets out of the Army. Bobby joined the Army for four years, and he is now stationed in Fairbanks, Alaska, doing some research work for the government. He will be home in about three months.

Edna informed us that Annie Belle Priddy is the wife of the Mayor of Baltimore, Maryland. Annie Belle is her husband's private secretary in Baltimore, Maryland.

As we boarded our rocketship for Chicago, we saw Jack Watts, who was to be our pilot. He told us he enjoyed his flying very much. He has not had an accident as yet, but he has come close many times. Jack is not married.

Jack told us that our stewardess was going to be Wilma Covington. As we went into the passengers' quarters, we saw Wilma. We learned she is married to the son of the American Airlines President. She enjoys her flying and has made many trips to gay Paris.

While she was in Paris, she saw "Diddy" Caudle who is an expert in designing clothes for teen-agers. We learned that in "Diddy's" spare time she teaches piano. "Diddy" has never married, but she is very hopeful about a tall, dark, and handsome artist in France.

When we arrived in Chicago, we went to a hotel for the night. There we were surprised to see Naomi Wall. Naomi is now singing for a big television program of her own.

Naomi told us that Grace Johnson is still living in North Carolina with her husband, who is owner of a dry cleaning business in King, North Carolina. Grace is the mother of a two year old girl, Kitty. Grace is an accountant for her husband.

Tonight we are dining in a ritzy restaurant in Chicago. As we entered I saw none other than Jack Booze who was entertaining a blond. He told us that his blond was only a model for his agency. Jack is the President of a huge model agency in Cincinnati, Ohio, and is married to his childhood sweetheart.

Jack told us that Billy Wilson is still living in Winston-Salem. He is secretary to the Business Manager of the Reynolds Tobacco Company and is expecting a promotion in about two weeks.

After leaving the restaurant, we hailed a taxi. We were surprised to see Betty Jean Boyles coming down the street with a handsome man, who was her husband. He is a successful architect. Betty Jean is a private secretary to the president of Swift and Company.

Betty Jean told us that Audrey Browder and Martha Ann Barrow are partners in a big department store in Detroit, Michigan. They are not married as yet.

As we boarded our rocketship this morning for Denver, Colorado, we saw Mary Ruth Johnson, along with many other beauties. Mary Ruth told us she is Miss King, Miss North Carolina, and she hopes to be Miss America, after tomorrow's contest.

We learned that Barbara Lawson is still living in King with her husband, who is a Vice-President of the McLean Trucking Company. She has a three year old son, Timmy.

We arrived in Denver, and as we were about to leave the rocketship, someone called to us from a nearby taxi. It was none other than "Becky" Watts and her husband, Dan Nance, and their two year old girl, Jenny. Dan is now an executive in Colorado. Dan is part owner of a chain of hotels all over the United States. "Becky" keeps house for Dan and the children.

When we arrived at our hotel, we were told someone was waiting to see us. They were magazine reporters and they wanted a picture for their magazine, Colliers. They were Rex Holder and Reginald Kiser. They have been reporters for five years and have been all over the world writing stories and interviewing important people.

We learned from Rex that Alvin Watts and Theodore Fulk have been in Mexico two years teaching the Mexicans the American way of farming through a reciprocal agriculture program.

As we entered Hollywood in a taxi, we were happy to see Doris Barr and Marvin Gentry, who were about to enter M. G. M. Studios. Doris graduated from Wingate College and is now a leading lady in a new picture. Marvin is her leading man. Marvin graduated from Harvard in 1956. He has starred in two movies.

Marvin told us that William Covington is now Governor of North Carolina, but "Bud" has never found himself a wife to be his first lady in the governor's mansion.

Doris told us that Doris Edwards and "Wimp" Holder have been married since 1955. "Wimp" has replaced Mr. Neal as basketball coach at King. His team is undefeated thus far this season. Doris is housekeeping for her husband and her little son, Ricky.

After taking care of the mail that had piled up during our visit, my boss told me I could have a two weeks' vacation.

I boarded a rocketship for North Carolina. As I stepped off the rocketship in Winston-Salem, I saw June Sisk and her husband, who is a dentist in New Orleans. They had just been married. June told me they were on their way to the Hawaiian Islands for a honeymoon. After their honeymoon, they plan to live in New Orleans.

As I entered King on a passenger train, I noticed a new sign on a door, Doctor Geraldine Lankford—Osteopath. I went in and sure enough, there was Geraldine giving a treatment for rheumatism and other aches and pains to a patient.

I learned that Barbara Southern is a criminal lawyer in Charlotte. She is married to her childhood sweetheart. Barbara has not as yet lost a case. She is a very good lawyer. Maybe she will be another Portia Blake.

Betty Sue Southern and her husband are living on a big plantation in South Carolina. They are very successful in their farming. There are three little girls and "nary" a Carl, Jr., in sight.

I learned that Allene Newsom is operating a cosmetics department in King, North Carolina. She is a very successful hair designer.

As I was about to leave King, I saw Marvin Tuttle. Marvin told me he is owner of six theaters in North Carolina. He is living up to his superlative "Old Bachelor" but he is forgetting it very soon.

Mrvin told me that Jones Burroow and Nolan Redding are farmers. Nolan is a poultry dealer. He has about fifty thousand fowls. Jones is a beef-cattle dealer. He has about 1000 head of cattle.

I learned that Hight Ferguson is General Manager of a Beach Resort in Miami, Florida. Hight married his childhood sweetheart in 1955. They have been living in Florida since then. His wife is a private secretary. Hight is a little theater actor in his spare time.

When I arrived back on Mars, I was very happy to have visited dear old King Hi and the planet Earth again.

THOSE GAY DAYS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Three, of King High School, in the county of Stokes, the State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, and realizing impending departure from this school, do hereby declare and make this our last will and testament.

To the school we leave the fond hope that it will improve as the years go by and that other seniors will perform in a more dignified manner than we have.

To the faculty: To Mr. Felts: A pair of roller skates and a paved walk to be used on his daily trips to the high school building. To Mrs. Brown: A warmer room and, too, a bouquet of red roses for the unrequited love and friendship bestowed upon us during our school days. To Mrs. Stevens: A copy of "Robinson Crusoe" and "My Friend, Flicka"—she needs new copies for we've read and reported on them every year since the ninth grade. To Mrs. Newsom: A Ph.D. degree in "Jack of All Trades," for anything we ask her to do—she can do. To Mr. Neal: Twins—each weighing 176 pounds and the ability to shoot with either hand—two more Bobby Joe's would clinch all championships. To Mrs. Shore: A "bulldozer" to push the Home Economics building a little closer to the new high school for it is inconvenient to have to go to the post office to get announcements of faculty meetings. To Mr. Lindler: A key to his desk drawer so the "most competent" pupils will not be able to sneak a copy of the test to pass around. To Mr. Underwood: A NEW convertible and a New parking lot at the NEW building. To Mr. Randal: A third year agricultural class that prefers working to sleeping. To Mrs. Gentry: A Glee Club that can get to class on time. To Mr. Tuttle: Some more green compound, a little wax, and someone to push the chairs back in place—he has three boilers to fire and needs a co-helper.

To the Juniors: Jessie Merritt wills her superlative, Most Polite, to Jean Calloway. Wilma Covington wills to Patsy Moorefield her title as "cutest" in hope that she can capture the honor in her Senior year. Naomi Wall wills her shorthand pad to Norma Jean Burrow and her dictation and transcription book to Jolene Davis. Betty Sue Southern wills her position as cashier in the lunchroom to Juanita Duggins and her superlative, Most Loyal, to Ilene Kiser. Geraldine Lankford wills her Reader's Digest to Shirley Turner. Jack Booze his superlatives, Neatest, to Robert Robertson, and Most Co-Operative, to Teddy Westmoreland. Reginald Kiser wills to Ray James his wit in hope that he can keep the rising Senior class amused. Jones Burrow wills his superlative, Biggest Baby, to Grady Watts. Bobby Gravitt wills being the biggest wolf to Keith Johnson. Audrey Browder wills to Patsy Shelton her wittiness so she can keep the Senior class in laughter. Martha Ann Burrow wills her superlative, Most Bashful, to Janet Shouse. Annie Belle Priddy wills her chair in Economics to Elsie Lankford. June Sisk wills her position of recording secretary of the Student Council to Barbara Long and her car keys to Sherman Petree so he can go to the bank. Mary Smith wills her privilege to speak her mind to Betty Watts so the Senior class will have someone to express their opinions. Barbara Southern wills to Wesley Hunsucker her "love" for Economics and to Wesley and Ethel Burrow all her book reports so they won't have to spend their Senior year reading. "Wimp" Holder wills his superlative, Most Athletic" to Bobby Joe Harris. Margaret Booze wills to Barbara Thomas her superlative, Biggest Flirt, and to Clarence Hall her Latin book. Doris Edwards wills her position as treasurer of the Student Council to Melva Boyles. Edna Newsom wills to Nancy Boyles her superlative, Most Athletic. Barbara Lawson wills to Jenny Lee Tuttle and Shirley Lawson her ability to fry eggs. Marvin Tuttle wills to Jocie Lewis his big brown eyes so she will have four to help her keep up with the scoring at the ball games. Grace Johnson wills her practice set in bookkeeping to Bettina Newsom and her pen and ink to Mary Lee Venable. Rebecca Watts wills to Faye Sizemore and Vonnie Slate her recipe for holding a man. Betty Jean Boyles wills her superlative, Quietest, to Violet Stewart. "Diddy" Caudle wills her "DO RA ME" ability to Bonnie Venable. Hight Ferguson wills to Curtis Brown his ability to attract the opposite sex. Nolan Redding wills his geometry book to Richard Norman. Jack Watts wills his superlative, Most Original, to Norman Venable. Doris Jane Barr wills her hair style to Harold Voss. Allene Newsom wills her superlative, Friendliest, to Elsie Fulk and Ineida Fulk. William Covington wills his position as president of the Student Council to Ann Phillips. Mary Ruth Johnson wills her superlative, Prettiest, to Mary Ruth Spainhour. Charles Westmoreland wills his white turtle-neck sweater to David Bennett. Alvin Watts wills his superlative, Most Bashful, to Charles Fulk. Rex Holder wills his superlative, Most Musical, to Clyde Jennings. Marvin Gentry wills his superlative, Most Intelligent, to Billy Jessup, in hopes that he can graduate next year. Theodore Fulk wills his superlative, Quietest, to Voyt Jones. Billy Wilson wills his ability to come to school, hold a job, and get married to Jimmy Moser and James Burrow. Dan Nance wills his superlative, Most Likely to Marry, to Elbert Jessup.

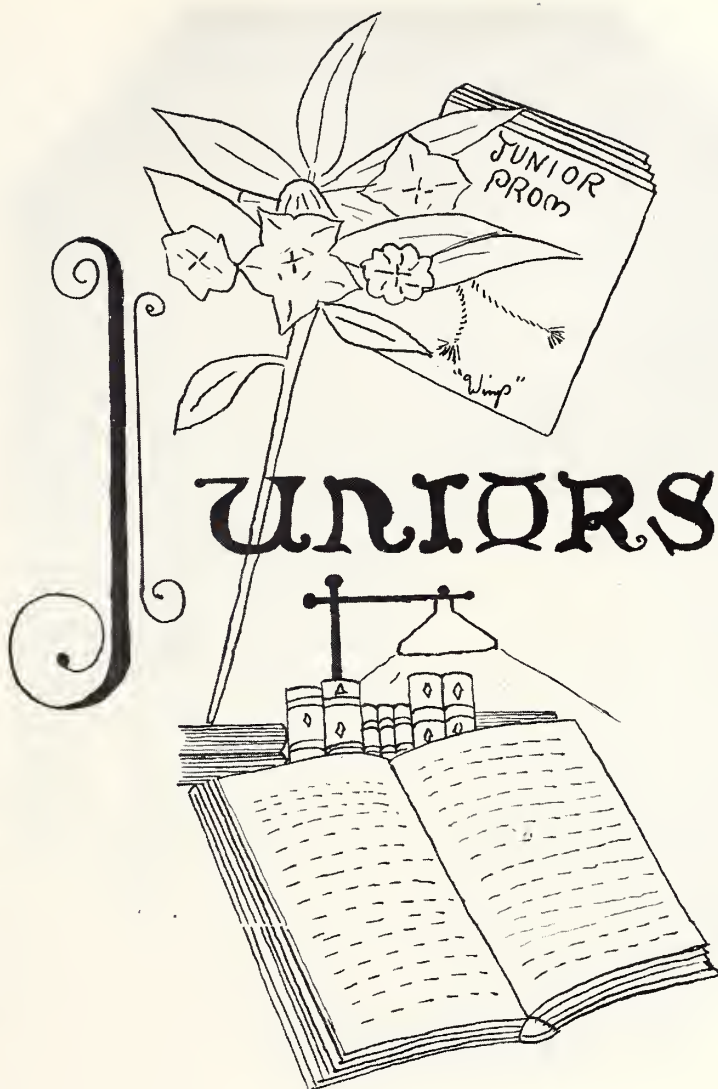

To this will, we, the class of 1953, do set our hands and seal.

Witnesses: Mary Smith—Jack Booze.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

"You are invited to a Get Acquainted Tea", was the first social event of the school year. The student council officers graciously presided as host to the faculty, P.-T. A. officers, and the grammar grade student council officers on this occasion in the new high school library.

At the first meeting, Mrs. Newell Newsom was elected adviser for the third consecutive year, and committee chairmen were appointed along with a teacher adviser for each committee.

The student council arranged all assembly programs for this school year. High-lights—with the spotlight on vocations—have been programs from the following professions: Medical doctors, secretaries, florists, drama, newspaper reporting, law, dentistry, nursing, ministry, armed service, teaching, agriculture, salesmen, and several others. We think these programs have been of great help to the pupils in our school.

The "Talent Show" in November was quite successful; the participants from other schools in our County helped to make it a real "treat".

"A "Sale of Reader's Digest" subscriptions was also sponsored in November, from which we received a nice profit.

"Open House" was held in November during American Education Week. Refreshments were served to parents and visitors in the Home Ec. building.

The "Boy and Girl of the Month" selection was made during the year by the student council—to the present date these boys and girls have received that honor: Richard Holder, Carolyn Hendrix, William Covington, Doris Jane Barr, Robert Robertson, Geraldine Lankford, Bobbie Joe Harris, and Edna Newsom.

Because of lack of interest in his duties, J. Lee Johnson was replaced by Lindsay Robertson as a ninth grade representative early in the year.

We sold "school color basketball pins" for our first ball game, declaring that day as "Color Day." Every pupil and teacher wore something "red and black" for the occasion.

Our council supplied the fruit that was served at basketball games by our cheerleaders.

At Christmas, with all high school rooms participating, we remembered several families with huge boxes of "Christmas cheer."

Again this year, the council members showered the basketball teams with towels to be used after games. The response for these towels was very gratifying.

Our council has been responsible for the attractively-kept bulletin board in the gym and, too, for all the colorful decorations used for each game.

June Sisk and Anne Phillips are to be complimented for their conscientious effort in writing "King Kracks" for our county papers.

The student council was quite honored this year at Christmas time for the opportunity of being host to the Stokes County Student Council at a Christmas banquet, served by the King American Legion Auxiliary.

Elsie Lankford is to be commended for her efforts in attempting to keep the halls quiet.

We appointed a grounds committee to work with the P.-T. A. committee for the improvement of our grounds surrounding our new building.

The high school social, "A Valentine Party," was sponsored by the student council social committee in February at Vade Mecum.

The student council has been responsible for the many and attractive bulletin boards at the entrance of the high school building.

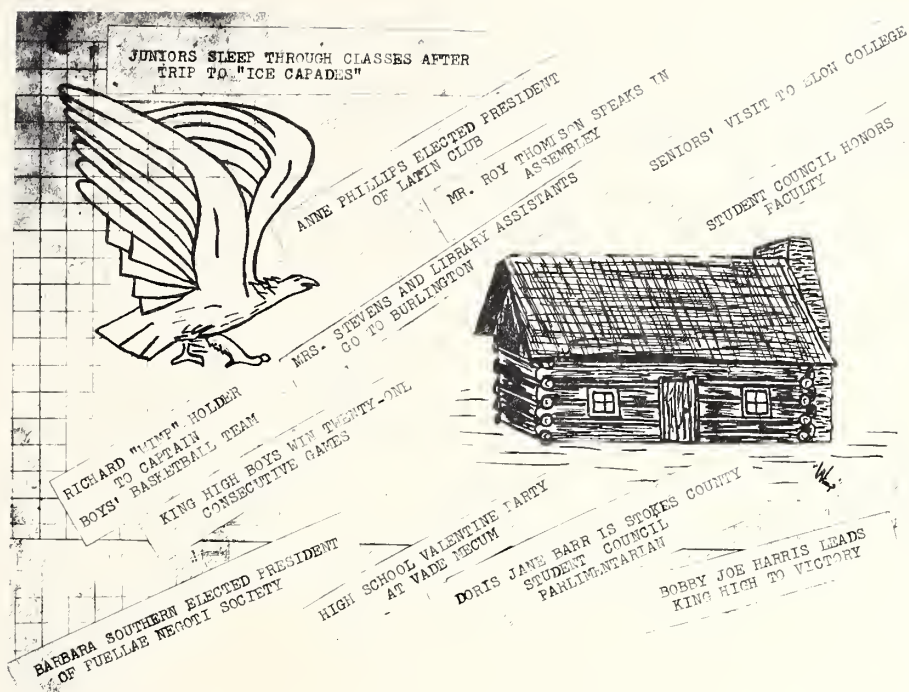

A worn American Flag was burned in a very impressive ceremony sponsored by our council in February.

At this writing the council president, William Covington, is being bombarded with questions about whether or not we will have Homecoming Day, May Day, and a high school outdoor outing.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

These boys and girls will be doing their share in the business world very soon. Many of our boys who have graduated hold responsible office positions in the armed services and elsewhere; you will find our girls in most all vocations of life—and they are all doing quite well, too.

THE PUELLAE NEGOTI SOCI

June Sisk, R. Sec.; Barbara Southern, Pres.; Edna Newsom, Treas.; Margaret Booze, C. Sec.; Naomi Wall, V. Pres.; Annie B. Priddy, Reporter.

The highlight of the year for the Puellae Negoti Society was its Valentine dinner meeting at which time each member of the society invited a former graduate of the department to be her guest of honor. Other members of the society are Betty Jean Boyles, Martha Ann Burrow, Barbara Lawson, Audrey Browder, Wilma Covington, and Mrs. Newsom, Adviser.

TRIBUTE TO KING HIGH SCHOOL

BY MILVIN SOUTHERN BENNETT

Ours is the best high school in the land.
Divided we'd fall; but united we stand.
We'll be loyal to the end.
On that, King High, you can depend.
Oh, dear old King High, we love you; we always will.
When we've grown old, we'll think of you still.
While our children live again,
The days that we once spent here.

We have a team that really is great,
One that is free from hard feelings and hate.
When our team walks on the floor,
You can hear the fans all roar,
"Rah! Rah! Rah! Come on, King High,
We know you can win; because you have won again and again.
If you lose, a smile you'll wear,
'Cause you know the game was fair."

Our Eagle stands so sure and so free;
He is a symbol of our loyalty.
Never wil we lose the trust,
That you, King High, have placed in us.
And then, when we have left and gone on our way,
We will forever hope and we'll pray,
Though we're leaving, we'll ne'er forget.
The lessons that we learned here.

Mary Sue Tuttle, June Sisk, Albert Newsom, Diddy Caudle, Chief; Billy Jessup, Patsy Shelton, Kay Long. Mrs. Newsom is cheerleader sponsor.

"RED and BLACK"

"Don't let the stars get in your eyes," has been the refrain floating over the campus for the past few weeks, the reason being, the once defeated King High School girls' basketball team.

This high-stepping, sharp-shooting, defensively clad basketball team began picking up steam last October at the first practice. We were happy to learn that Mr. Neal would be the girls' coach this year. Those returning from Mrs. Voss's excellent team of last year were Edna Newsom, Melva Boyles, Margaret Booze, Doris Edwards, Mary Ruth Johnson, Grace W. Johnson, Doris Jane Barr, Mary E. Smith, Nancy Boyles, and Faye Sizemore. Kay Carroll, Ann Spainhour, Mary Ruht Spainhour, and Violet Stewart were the new ones on the team.

This group of girls after patient coaching from Mr. Neal and determination on their part soon developed into what some people say is the best King team since 1938. The King sextet has won the Stokes County title for the past six years, and because of their fine record up to the present time, they are again favored to cop the Stokes County Crown. The only loss of the season was to a strong Pilot Mountain team, whom they later defeated 29-14.

Captaining the team are Edna Newsom, a powerful guard, and Mary Ruth Johnson, who is a star at forward or guard. Newsom, along with Melva Boyles and Margaret Booze, make up one of the finest defensive units in the state. Along with the reserve guards, they held Walkertown, a high scoring team, without a field goal the entire game, King winning 28-10.

Johnson teams with Mary Edith Smith and Nancy Jo Boyles to give the team a high geared offense. Boyles is one of the finest all-round forwards in the Northwest. Smith will probably develop into one of the most powerful forwards that King has ever had. Grace Johnson is to be congratulated for being able to step right into Mary Ruth Johnson's position and carry on for King High. Doris Jane Barr's ability to pass the ball to the place it's needed has meant victory in many games, and Doris Edwards along with the other capable reserves has made our team the best in Stokes County.

Much of the credit for the success of the team must go to Mr. Neal, one of the best coaches in the Northwest. Mr. Felts, who was always ready with suggestions and who substituted for Mr. Neal while he was sick, also had a part in the building of the team. Mrs. Newsom, lady adviser, has helped out with her encouragement and constructive criticism. The managers, Jocie Lewis and Oleita Barnes, have kept the team "chewing" and have been very co-operative in keeping the dressing rooms clean.

"Shoot 'em high; shoot 'em low! Come on girls, let's go! We want the Stokes County Crown —Seven in a row."

"EAGLES"

"King Hi boys will shine tonight
King Hi will shine—"

And that is exactly what the King High boys have done in the twenty games played to date. Our Eagles have "burned up the hardwood" in Northwest North Carolina this year with a seventy-point average per game.

Coach Odell Neal's high-scoring, "high-soaring" Eagles racked up 119 points in one victory. Pacing the attack this year has been high-scoring Bobby Joe Harris, and captain, Richard "Wimp" Holder, with Robert Robertson, the long shot artist of the team, adding points when most needed.

Dance Nance along with Wimp Holder has maintained a stronghold under all opponents' baskets, and dependable Wesley Hunsucker, "the four point man," has aided the undefeated Eagles defensively.

"Oh, yes, Coach Odell Neal's done it again," says Mr. and Mrs. Basketball Fan of the Northwest, and the patrons and pupils of King Hi are really quite proud of the coach of the "Red and Black" teams.

Rounding out the roster for the Eagles has been Marvin Gentry, senior; sophomore Joe Bolejack, Don Robertson, and James Lawson; and freshmen Don Boyles, Richard Westmoreland have been favored this year to take over when the "big Eagles" needed a rest.

Carrying towels, rubbing "Charley Horses," and holding jackets has kept managers "Smitty" Smith and "Rose" Baker quite busy—and they've done a good job, too!

Guiding the Eagles during Mr. Neal's illness was Mr. Collins, our eighth grade teacher, who performed in the true "Stokes County Collins' Manner."

C-o-m-e-o-n EAGLES! We want the Stokes County Championship to make it six in a row, and if you don't mind, just add the State Race Crown to your accomplishments. Yea! TEAM.

REMEMBER WHEN?

'Way back in 1941

We entered grade school one by one.

"What's your name?" asked Miss New

"Here are some toys and little books, too."

Miss Hutchens stopped our cries and frowns,
And sent us up to Garner, Gentry and Brown.

Oh, yes, Mrs. Jones taught us to sing,
And Miss Sprinkle took us for walks in the spring.

Mrs. Kiser, Mrs. Gentry and Mrs. Lawson taught us geogra-phy.
Mrs. Slate and Mrs Moore tried the same with his-to-ry

In the Sixth grade Mrs Lawson gave us candy,
And Mrs. Lewis told us stories—a few were quite dandy.

Mrs. Kiser taught some the right way to write,

Yes, we Seniors of '53 are bidding you 'Goodbye.'
We shall never forget you—we could not break that tie.
